A passion for truth & a heart for women to know it

Susan Meissner is a multi-published author, speaker and writing workshop leader with a background in community journalism and women's ministries.

A pastor's wife and mother of four young adults, Susan has walked a life of faith since childhood.

"God has met my every need in Jesus Christ, and has gone even beyond this, to bless me with a passion for the truth and a desire to communicate that truth," Susan says. "Through the pages of my books and the words I speak aloud, I want women to KNOW the God who loves them. Because when you know the truth of who God is, what He is like, and the depth of His love and wisdom, then you can trust Him."

Susan is an award-winning columnist and a former newspaper editor.

She has been active in women's ministries and worship teams for the last 20 years, and is currently the Small Groups and Connection Ministries at The Church at Rancho Bernardo in San Diego, CA.

"We are each of us gifted to give something back to the Kingdom. God has wired us with abilities, insights and passions and has a place for us to use those talents in His plan to redeem the world. I want everyone to know Who they belong to and to embrace the role God has prepared for them to fill. We will be restless until we fill it!"
